DETAILED ACTION

Rejection Repeated

1. The 35 U.S.C. 103(a) rejection of claims 1-10 unpatentable over Yamaguchi et al. in view of Fujita et al. has been repeated as previously made in office action 11/26/08.

As to the new limitation, "wherein the electrolyte membrane has a proton conductivity of 0.05S/cm or more and a membrane area change ratio of 20% or less," this limitation would be expected since Yamaguchi et al. and Fujita et al. teaches the same materials for the electrolyte membrane desired by the applicant.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 4/23/09 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to applicant's argument, Yamaguchi et al. and Fujita et al. discloses the same materials for the electrolyte membrane desired by the applicant therefore it would be expected that wherein the electrolyte membrane has a proton conductivity of 0.05S/cm or more and a membrane area change ratio of 20% or less in absence of unexpected results. "Products of identical chemical composition can not have mutually exclusive properties." A chemical composition and its properties are inseparable. Therefore, if the prior art teaches the identical chemical structure, the properties applicant discloses and/or claims are necessarily present. In re Spada, 911 F.2d 705, 709, 15 USPQ2d 1655, 1658 (Fed. Cir. 1990)

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
